

FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO 2015

Mexico City, October 31, 2015

“THE TRACK IS REALLY GOOD...” That’s what F1® is saying about Friday.

Sergio Perez, Force India:

“From a personal point of view, it has been a very special day, but my mind is on the job and we need to get set for the race. The circuit is a great challenge and also is very slippery as I expected. Conditions are equally complicated for everyone, so we all are going to adapt ourselves. I want to give the Mexican fans that came to the Autodromo this week, a reason to celebrate next Sunday. It was incredible to see so many fans today and I feel really optimistic about the results I can offer.”

Claire Williams, Deputy Director of Williams Racing team (winning team of GP in Mexico 1992):

“I was 14 years old when the racing took place here, but I don’t witnessing it, I am pretty sure I did though. It is incredible to be back since we have already won the race in Mexico before. Williams has a great history here and it would be really nice to repeat this weekend.”

Vijay Mallya, Force India team Director:

“We are absolutely enjoying being here. We launched the car in Mexico on January this year. Checo has great followers and large Mexican sponsors feeling proud, and I personally love this country, for there are large similarities with India, so this is like home racing for us as well.”

Lewis Hamilton, Mercedes driver:

“I think It was a great challenge out there for all of us today, but it will also be very fun. It is fabulous to watch how many people came today. The grandstands were totally occupied the whole time, especially for a Friday, which was really good to see.”

Daniil Kvyat, Red Bull Renault driver:

“The track is really good and entertaining, there are a lot of technical sections in the corners for what we have to be ready and think twice before taking them. Audience was really good, we saw a lot of fans and so much passion today and the stadium is looking good.”

Jenson Button, McLaren Honda driver:

“In the afternoon grip was much better, it was fun to drive a track with good grip, you can position the car and accelerate in the corners. I am waiting for an unpredictable race. Even if we had to begin from last, we are going to do everything in our hands to have a great start up and mark the track, as we usually do. I think we are going to have some fun around here.”

Paul Hembery, Director of Pirelli Motorsport:

“Even when this was just a free practice, the mood felt incredible. This particular section in the turns of the stadium is made to be the most outstanding of the racing day.”
